...he bade them TEACH the use of the bow

PROSPECTUS

1. The school is called RCN Bible SEMINARY or ADULLAM.

Adullam means Refuge or Justice of the people. It was mentioned eight (8) times in scriptures. The Cave of Adullam stood on the old Roman road in the valley of Elah, not far from Gath, which was the scene of David's memorable victory over Goliath (1Samuel 17:2). The Cave of Adullam became a place of resort for David. It was the location where all that were stranded, discouraged and had given up on life resorted to David to find meaning (1Sam. 22:1-2). Adullam became a forge where charlatans are turned into champions, the PLACE, both for the apprentice and the veteran, and a retreat center for refreshing and retooling (2Sam.23:13-17). It was called "the glory of Israel" (Micah 1:15).

The RCN Bible Seminary— Adullam, is a ministry training program designed with a learning environment that has an intense atmosphere of Heaven, accompanied with Spiritual impartations. It is a training and equipping that is imparting, intellectual, and rigorous. A program characteristic of an academic rigor alongside a high spiritual engagement.

2.0 Academic Programs

The programs are designed to establish the believer in the foundations of the Christian Faith. It begins to expose the believer to the realities of the Kingdom of God, Truths about Spirit Life, the Government of God and the implications of these realities in natural existence in their various ramifications in everyday life situations. The programs have an objective of producing Kingdom foot soldiers, a workforce equipped with adequate capacities and tools for Kingdom Advance and colonization. Challenging realities on the field of Christian missions and the provisions of Kingdom resource to live triumphant in Kingdom enterprise are expounded. Moreover, the training equips the believer for Apostolic Invasions and Territorial Priesthood.

There are two enrollment sessions annually:

- January session
- June session

The program duration is 2 semesters of four (4) months each for Campus Option, and Seven and a Half (7.5) months each for Online Option. Each of the semesters are scheduled during the January or June sessions depending on the time of enrolment.

3.0 Program Options

The RCN Bible Seminary - Adullam, offers two program options:

1. Online option
2. On-Campus option

3.1 The Online option

The Online program was created in response to the global needs for spiritual training and equipping of those who cannot make it for the residency On-Campus option. Although designed to be still engaging and impactful, it is lighter in intensity than the On-Campus option, and compatible for the work and family demands of everyday life. The academic requirements of the Online option being significantly less than the On-Campus option, offers a Certificate of Participation in Theology and Ministry. However, an additional top-up crash course of four weeks residency program is available in addition to the online program, for those who desire to convert the online Certificate of Participation to the full Diploma in Theology and Ministry.

The Online option lags the On-Campus option by two and a half month. It has recorded class sessions designed to be taken at a time that is flexible for the student. There are weekly academic requirements comprising classes and ministry practicum requirements as indicated on the student's online dashboard.

3.2 The On-Campus option

The On-Campus option is a full residency program that offers a Diploma in Theology and Ministry. The academic activities has two requirements: a class attendance and a ministry practicum, which amounts to 60 credit hours.

4.0 Calendar

1. There are periodic seven (7) hours Tongues Exercise monthly: 6:00am - 1:00pm (+1 GMT).
2. There are scheduled Week of Global Intercession: Mon-Wed (during Contact week or as scheduled)
3. There are scheduled Mission trips in the course of the program
4. The Graduation/Impartation Service will be during the IEC (International Eagles Conference). Graduating student are required to be present from the first day of the Conference.

The scheduled Week of Global Intercession will be the class activity for the week, and rune 7am-3pm, except there is scheduled class.

5.0 Assessment

The grading assessment shall include term paper, examination (assignments, tests etc.), ministry practicum and attendance.

5.1 Guidelines for Term paper

The student shall choose a topic for their term paper that bothers on a contemporary issue in the body of Christ. The paper shall be well-researched, with a minimum of 10 bibliography, 8-10 pages, Times New Roman, font 12, 1 inch margin (on the top, bottom, left and right), and 1.5 line spacing.

The term paper should demonstrate evidences of basic research skills. On the minimum, the paper should have the following elements:

Introduction

Background to the study: This should capture the key concept of the title/topic, should indicate the issues of concern or needs in the area of study, present the dominant idea desired to be communicated.

Significance of the study Show why this is an important area to be studied. Indicate at least two beneficiaries of the study, and show how each will benefit from the study. Operational Definition of Terms: Briefly define the specific meaning of any special term or word used in the paper. Any coined word or technical word, phrase or expression used unconventionally or which might not be otherwise understood.

Main Body of Paper

Interaction with Relevant Literature: The main body of the term paper should effectively interact with relevant literature to know what has been done in the area of the research, to know what has not been done, and to give originality to the research in the paper, in the light of what has not been done. The research study shown in the paper should bridge the gap of knowledge. General Provisions: Each paragraph should begin with a topic sentence, supported by thoughtful supporting details, designed to develop the main idea. Ideas expressed in the paragraphs should be logical and in sequential order. Each paragraph should be more than a single sentence. Personal pronouns should be avoided, and the work should be presented in past tense.

Summary of Term Paper

Conclusion: The major outcome(s) or result(s) of the study should be concisely stated. This is not a repetition of what has already been covered in the term paper. Application: This is designed to respond to the question, "So what?" How can the outcome(s) or result(s) of the research be applied in a contextually relevant manner? Recommendations: What specific suggestions is available for putting the application of the research to work? While this is an extension of the application, it is more specific and measurable.

Supporting Details

Abstract: This should be placed before the table of contents, and is not counted in the required number of pages of the main term paper. The length should not exceed 200 words. Table of Contents: This should be placed appropriately prior to the first page of the main term paper. The "Abstract" and the "Table of Contents" should not appear in the table of contents.

5.2 Course Grading Guidelines

The grading guidelines for the online program will be as indicated on the online student's dash board.

The grading guidelines for the On-Campus program will be as follows:

Term Paper /Assignment	20%
Examination	20%
Practicum (Log book)	40%
Attendance	20% ( for full attendance = 20%, missing one lesson with legitimate reason = 10%, for more =0%)
Total	100%

6.0 Student Ethics; Standard Code of Conduct and Termination

As an On-Campus student in a Christian institution, we believe that as a matter of good testimony before men, "Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil" (1Timothy 3:7), should strive toward a high standard of behavior. Each individual must remember that the Bible holds us accountable for our actions, "So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God" (Romans 14:12). A student whose personal conduct is a poor testimony of Christ or fails to live in accordance with the Scriptural ideals of the institution, will be spiritually counseled and/or disciplined by the Office of The Dean of Student's Affairs. The College reserves the rights to refuse admission, put on disciplinary probation and/or terminate admission when personal conduct is not consistent with the Spirit and standard of Christ and the College without refund of College fees. The College Code of Conduct Policy covers the following areas:

- i. Ground Rules
- ii. Dress Code
- iii. Study Obligations
- iv. Phone Management
- v. Personal Conduct
- vi. Reverence vii. ID Card
- vii. Certification

6.1 Ground Rules

All classes are compulsory

Punctuality is mandatory

Absence from classes up to three lessons will attract expulsion from the program

6.2 Dress Code; Appearance

Dress code and appearance at Adullam is such as should be to the glory of God (1Cor 10:31). Dress sense that is carnally motivated by sensual and inordinate appeal has no place. As a people called to be priests and kings unto the Lord (1Pe 2:9; Rev. 1:6; 5:10), appearance at every point must be an act of worship to the Lord.

And thou shalt make holy garments for Aaron thy brother for glory and for beauty. Exodus 28:2

Women's Dress Code

Modesty, femininity and good taste are the guiding principles of women's dressing at Adullam. Women shall wear dresses, skirts or loosely fitting slacks with sweaters or blouses to class. Note, if slacks are worn, tops that are below the hips MUST be worn. Low cut necklines, dress with slits above the knee, tight, revealing or sexually provocative clothing are not permitted. No leggings and sleeveless dresses are permitted. A formal dressing is most recommended.

Men's Dress Code

To be well groomed, clean, neat and tidy is the guiding principle for men. No bare feet or flip flops, no shot-knickers or T-shirts allowed. Respectable traditional attires, plain trousers' and shirts with collars on a matching pair of shoes are recommended. Suits are most appropriate. And always on a neck tie will do.

6.3 Study Obligations

Students are required to devote themselves unreservedly to their studies during class periods and home works which are COMPULSORY and to conform willingly and promptly to their studies throughout the program. Punctuality and cooperation are essential for the smooth running and well-being of the Seminary and personal discipline.

- Students are expected to complete the Bible Seminary Program applied for, arriving on the Firstday of school and remaining through to the Closing-date.
- Permission MUST be obtained from the Provost through the Dean of Student's Affairs with a minimum of two weeks' notice for a student to be absent from class or any College activity apart from set break times and dates.
- Assignments must be submitted on schedule
- Absence from classes up to three (3) lessons amounts to automatic withdrawal from the college program
- Please note that some of the courses requires the buying of course materials.

6.4 Phone Management

Students MUST put off their phones throughout the class periods, no phone ringing or notification tones are allowed.

6.5 Personal Conduct

Students are required to abstain from the use of tobacco, alcoholic beverages and drugs both on and off the Campus. They will also maintain behavior above reproach in relationship with the opposite sex, and "Abstain from all appearance of evil" 1Thessalonians 5:22.

6.6 Reverence

- Students must esteem their Instructors very highly as worthy of double honour, laboring in Word and Doctrine.
- Students must treat fellow students with utmost respect and politeness. The golden Law "Love" shall guide every relationship in the College.

6.7 ID Card

- Students shall ALWAYS wear their ID Cards on their front throughout their time in College
- The ID Card becomes the Pass to any class

6.8 Certification

- At the successful completion of your academic program, having been found above board in character and learning, you shall be awarded a certificate.
- For students that press on into the Professional Program, a Ministerial License shall be given by a church or ministry that has observed a proof of God's call on your life and finds you ready for the work of the ministry.
- The certificate and Ministerial License if given by us remains the property of Adullam and Remnant Christian Network, and can be withdrawn under the following reasons:
  - a. When there is a major Doctrinal deviation
  - b. When there is a chronic Moral deviation This code of conduct is not intended to be an exhaustive list of misconducts that will be subject to discipline. Therefore, the College reserves the right to discipline a student for any misconduct the College in her sole discretion, considers worthy of discipline, even though the specific conduct is not mentioned in this code

3. Where ever I am, I will pursue and defend the interest of Jesus my Master
4. I look forward to a glorious resurrection;
to live or die for Jesus my Lord
5. I pledge my heart, my emotions, my mind, my will...
I love you Jesus

8. College Anthem

I PLEDGE ALLEGIANCE TO THE LAMB

*I pledge allegiance to the Lamb
With all my strength, With all I am
I will seek to honor His command
I pledge allegiance to the Lamb*

I have heard how Christians long ago
Where brought before a tyrant's throne
And they were told that he would spare their lives
If there would renounce the Name of Christ

But one by one they chose to die
The Son of God they would not deny
Like a great angelic choir they sing
I can almost hear their voices ring

*I pledge allegiance to the Lamb
With all my strength, With all I am
I will seek to honor His command
I pledge allegiance to the Lamb*

Now the years have come,
And the years have gone
But the course of Jesus still goes on
And now our time has come,
To count the cost To reject this world,
to embrace the cross

And one by one, let us live our lives
For the one who die to give us life
Till the trumpet sounds on the final day
Let us proudly stand and boldly say

*I pledge allegiance to the Lamb
With all my strength, With all I am
I will seek to honor His command
I pledge allegiance to the Lamb*

To the Lamb of God, Who bore my pain
Who took my pains, Who wore my shame
I will seek to honor His command
I pledge allegiance to the Lamb
